

NYMPHUS CARL MURDOCK

Carl is the son of Nymphus Warren and Emily Catherine Hicken Murdock. He graduated from Wasatch High School in Heber City. In World War II he drove a supply truck and was part of the D-Day invasion of Europe. Using the G.I. Bill he learned auto body repair in Oakland. He married Roma McAfee and they had one daughter. He married Vivian Merikofer and they had five children before she died. Later he married Wanda Roberts. He has owned and operated auto body shops in Ely, Salt Lake City, Pleasant Grove and American Fork for forty years.

He has held many offices in church including scoutmaster, teacher, MIA Superintendent, counselor in Bishopric. He

"I believe in the value of old things and in preserving them. They speak our our history—of people who have come before us. And the tabernacle can actually be brought back to life and become useful again"
